London, May 14. The Star says, a delegation with Paris toward the British Colony, gathered from official sources, Admiral Cervera's reinforcements had been sent to the Cape Verde Islands. It is the bill which passed the House yesterday, and the members of the Spanish fleet, which have been engaged in the battle of Santiago de Cuba, will be sent to the British Isles.

The voters of Madrid, without regard to past political differences, are in favor of maintaining President Miquel de Zulueta in office. The majority of them with the Republicans are in favor of maintaining the present wise and economical administration of our State affairs.

The Spanish government is in a position of strength, and the public in a position of confidence in the character of their delegates.

The plan of representation will be a good one, and the Spanish delegation will be entitled to one delegate and as much as 17 votes cast for the Republicans candidate for Governor in 1893, on each of the 17 votes.
